Below is the link to make an application for housing in a CUA residence hall within easy walking distance of the Law School where Life and Learning XX takes place. This application is designed for guests participating in a CUA departmentally sponsored program during the summer, and seeking housing on campus. The site is currently set up to accept applicants for the University Faculty for Life Annual Meeting June 4-5 (at "What program are you with?" click to "Law School: Faculty for Life Annual Mtg.").

Please note that using this campus housing involves conditions and limitations, some of which are mentioned here. We suggest you carefully read all details regarding amenities and restrictions.

Accommodation is available in suites, two persons per suite, with private bedroom and shared bathroom within the suite. The charge is $35 per night per person plus taxes and a handling charge. Linens are not provided for this charge. One must either purchase a linen pack for $25 or bring one's own linens. Pillows are not provided and must be brought. There is a section for notes on the application. Those wishing to share a suite should enter the name of the suite-mate in the notes section.
